JANUARY 1952

OLNEY HIGH SCHOOL

THEME

"Things are growing curiouser and curiouser" is what Alice would say if she were to come to Olney. Our immense school, with its many floors and rooms, would be as confusing to her as it was to us when we first entered its doors. Alice's many adventures in Wonderland can be compared to those that we have experienced in Olney. Through her experiences in her world, Alice made many new friends and learned how to get along with different kinds of people. It is our desire to do the same at Olney. If we follow her example and look forward to each day as a new adventure, our life will be richer and more nearly complete.

Therefore, we, the class of January 1952, have selected this famous Alice as our theme.

OUR SPONSORS

With a feeling of friendship and gratitude to the three persons who have helped to make our past three terms at Olney pleasant ones, we, as the graduating class, dedicate our yearbook to our sponsors, Miss Dealy, Mr. Rantz, and Mr. Mueller. We would have been at a loss without your untiring efforts to make our activities a success. Your able assistance and helpful criticism combined with your friendliness toward the class made us feel that you were really one of us. No class could have asked for three more wonderful sponsors. Yes, throughout the time that you have guided us, we have truly seen the wonderful unity that blended sponsor and class into one harmonious whole. You have been our source of spirit and enthusiasm.

With our sincere and heartfelt thanks we dedicate our yearbook to you.

In Memory of

Mary A. Patterson

Olney High 1935–October 1950

. . . a true gentlewoman, refined in taste, gracious in manner, flawless in integrity

. . . a generous person, willing at all times to give freely of herself; an understanding person, to whom her students could confidently turn for help and guidance.

. . . a "presence" in the school—a presence cheerful, friendly, winsome.

"When she had passed, it seemed like the ceasing of exquisite music."

ADMINISTRATION

Lo, and behold—How came we here? Such confusion! Look, new faces—books—strange rooms—mixed rosters—new friends—old friends and regulations.

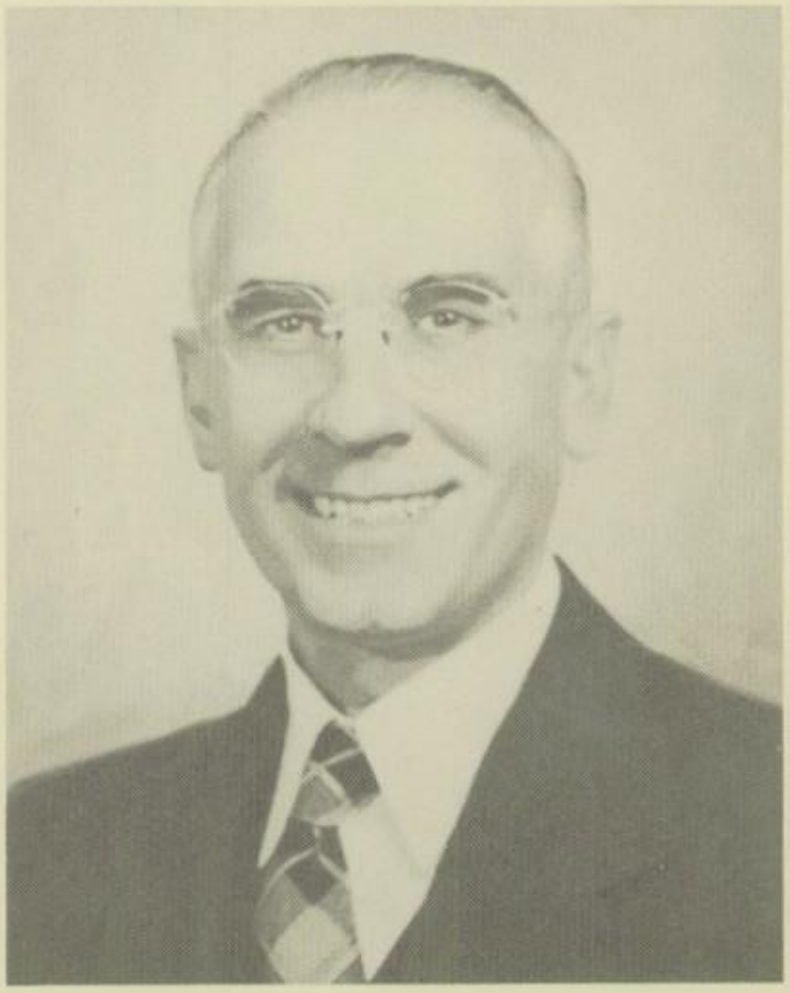
Down . . .

Down . . .

Down . . .

into the depths of Olney. Can you imagine yourself alone, unaided, in Wonderland? Poor Alice was. However, you are much luckier than Alice. When you came into Olney, there were many people here to help you. Certainly none of us would be where we are now without the wonderful understanding, foresight and guidance of our faculty. What would have been a difficult path to follow, seemed simple when our faithful leaders were here to point out the way. Having been tossed into the great ocean of Olney from a small pond, you probably would have floundered about quite a bit before you got settled—but once again the administration lent a helping hand. Now, we have all grown from tiny, freshman Alices, to the full-grown Alice found at the end of the book. For this may be considered the last chapter in our high-school days. Only a few pages still remain. Olney will be as pleasant a dream for you in future years, as Wonderland was for our friend, Alice.

OUR PRINCIPAL

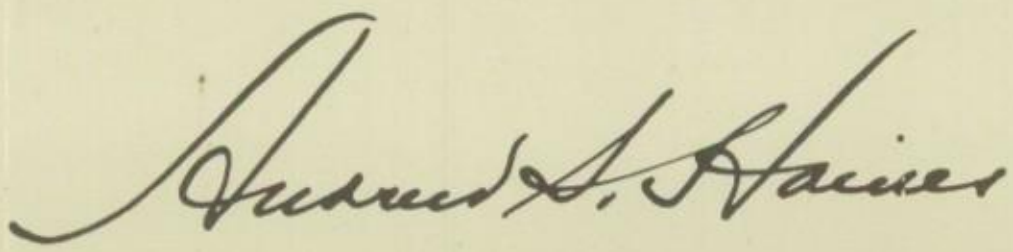


ANDREW S. HAINES

Have you ever been lost in a wilderness of trees, hills, and streams —no trails, no highways, no buildings, not even a compass—nothing but the slanting sun to give you a hint of direction?

Then, suddenly, when surroundings seemed most fearful, you emerged into the grateful security of a familiar scene, took your bearings, and moved toward home and safety!

As you recall many experiences in Olney High which developed maturity, brought poise, assurance and better judgment, it is my wish for you that habits of truth, honor and resolution formed here may become a guiding compass through the confusion of the future, and like Alice in Wonderland, you may now meet each new experience with confident curiosity, and a faith that all will be well.



VICE PRINCIPALS

WALTER B. GREENWOOD NELLIE S. FINK

Mrs. Fink, the Vice Principal, is known to the student body for her constructive guidance whenever difficulties arise. Her cheerful smile and pleasant "hello" is remembered by all who seek her services. Her untiring efforts have guided us during our memorable stay at Olney. Our gratitude to her cannot be aptly expressed in words. Her only reward may lie in knowing that she is helping us along in life.

Whenever we, the class of January '52, think back to our years at Olney High School, we will surely remember Dr. Greenwood, the Vice Principal. At some time in the last three years every one of us has either come in contact with him personally in search of advice or seen him during one of his visits to a classroom. The sincere advice and valuable suggestions of Dr. Greenwood have aided in many ways not only us students but also Olney High School.

Alumni Association

The Alumni Association is designed not only to further Olney High School and its students' endeavors but to keep alive the friendships formed during your days of learning. Besides keeping the memories of school from growing dusty after graduation, the Alumni Association also contributes to school life by giving trophies to the outstanding member of each varsity sport. It gives a Scholarship Award to a member of the graduating class who has a high scholastic average and has done excellent work for the school.

The Alumni has prepared to promote the activities of the students out of school as well as those in Olney. These activities will enable you to form new friendships and recall past experiences as long as you stay active in the Alumni Association.

Through the cooperation and efforts of the Big Four Fathers' Association, Olney High School has attained and is attaining many high standards in the field of sports and student citizenship. This group, composed of fathers and friends, has gone beyond the expected services in its efforts to aid our school and community.

We, the graduating class of 1952, extend our deep appreciation to this worthy organization which has accomplished so much for Olney High School.

ACTIVITIES

"Oh dear! oh dear! I shall be too late!" The white rabbit with pink eyes who so startled Alice was not the last to make that exclamation. It has been uttered dozens of times by us Olney students at two thirty P.M. when classes end and clubs commence. Just as Mr. Rabbit pulled out a watch from his waistcoat pocket, so we have often glanced hurriedly at our wristwatches, not wanting to miss a single moment of our pleasant after-school activities. We may have been dashing to a service club such as the Trojanaires and Trojanettes. Or perhaps it was a language club. Many of us are particularly interested in current events, speaking, writing, music, or social clubs. Thanks to the teachers who willingly give up much of their spare time, it has been possible to offer a wide variety of clubs to us students. Not only have we benefited from these extra curricular activities, but we have also derived a great deal of enjoyment from them.

Girls' Chorus

A Cappella Choir

Our A Cappella Choir, famous for its excellent work, is an organization of which we can be proud. The choir, directed by Mr. Nitsche, has been the champion of choirs in Philadelphia for many years.

The choir has numerous activities. It accepts Sunday evening engagements at various churches and occasionally plays at social functions, besides giving the students of Olney frequent opportunities to hear its fine music.

The officers of the choir are Leah Haman, president; Richard Davison, vice-president; Janet Rintz and Helga Lensch, secretaries; Elinor Fisher, treasurer. Laurence Davis acts as manager, and Marilyn Meyer, robe custodian, keeps the choir members looking their best.

Band

The band is under the fine leadership of Mr. Zapf. This organization practices every morning from eight till eight-forty-five. It is composed of sixty members who play various kinds of instruments. Whenever there is need for musical talent, the Olney High Band is always on hand. Our band plays at the football games, parades, at June commencements, and at concerts at the school. The band is one of the many organizations formed to make our life at Olney more pleasant and worth while.

The officers of the band are Walter Woessner, president; Edward Russo, vice-president; Temeh Needle, secretary; Barbara Gehrung, treasurer.

Orchestra

Our orchestra, led by Mr. Levengood, is fast becoming one of the best in the city. It consists of thirty-one string instruments and twenty-three wind instruments, together wih percussion and piano. The orchestra weekly sends a larger contingent of players to the All City Orchestra than any other school in the city.

The concert engagements this term include semi-annual assembly programs, concert for the Big Four (with Choir and Band), program with choir the week before Christmas, concert at Brith Israel Synagogue. The orchestra also plays for churches and school in the community.

The officers are: George Hagmaeier, president and concertmaster; Rosalie Goldberg, vice-president and uniform custodian; Dolores Melching, secretary; Donald Ewart, treasurer.

Their noisy office is a fine example of their hustling spirit. The Highlights' Office, Olneyittes' favorite meeting place, is where we find Mr. Hurowitz working with his staff. Among the editors, we find Janet Zucker, Larry Metzman, Ray Horan, Pat Mahoney, Louis Applebaum, and Rochelle Bishow, the graduating members of the staff. Constantly on the run we find these journalists suffering through late deadlines, tardy reporters and millions of conferences. The daily activity reaches its climax upon the publication of the Olney Highlights, a paper "by and for the students of Olney."

SPORTS

"Everybody has won and all must have prizes." These words spoken by the Dodo after the delightful Caucus Race, express our sentiments toward Olney's teams. Although they do not always take top honors in every sport, we know that they have really done their best to make us proud of them. To us they are winners. We know that they do not stop trying until every touchdown they can possibly make is scored, until every possible run comes across the plate, until every possible basket swishes through the hoop. What more could be asked of anyone? If everyone in the school would put as much effort into being better citizens of Olney as our players put into the perfection of a team, the entire school could say that everybody has won.

Baseball Team

Coach—Mr. Nejman

Our Baseball team, ably coached by Mr. Nejman, enjoyed its most successful season since 1932, winning the Public League Championship and then going on to the City Championship, beating La-Salle, Catholic League Champion, by a score of 6-4.

Who can ever forget the day of the playoff? Who can ever forget the fine team play of all the boys, led by Bert Gold, captain and shortstop, and especially the wonderful pitching of Don Berger, which won him the "Most Valuable Player" Trophy? No, Olney will never forget. To you, and to the champion Second Baseball Team, we doff our hats and wish you as much success in later life as you have achieved on the baseball diamond.

Football Team

Coaches—Mr. Mueller, Mr. Veith

Olney's football squad is one of which we can all be proud. Each game provided new thrills and spectacular plays. Under the expert coaching of Mr. Mueller and Mr. Veith, our mighty Trojans played every game with skill, and, what was more important, with enthusiasm. The spirit and backing of our loyal student body were the driving forces behind the team. It is this spirit that always has, and always will, make them a hard team to beat.

Soccer Team

Coach—Mr. Brink

Olney has long been known for its fighting, winning soccer teams. This season is no exception. In the first few weeks of the season, the "Brinkmen" lost only one game in league play and that to Northeast, perennial league champion. We wish them the same success in all their games and in all their other endeavors, too.

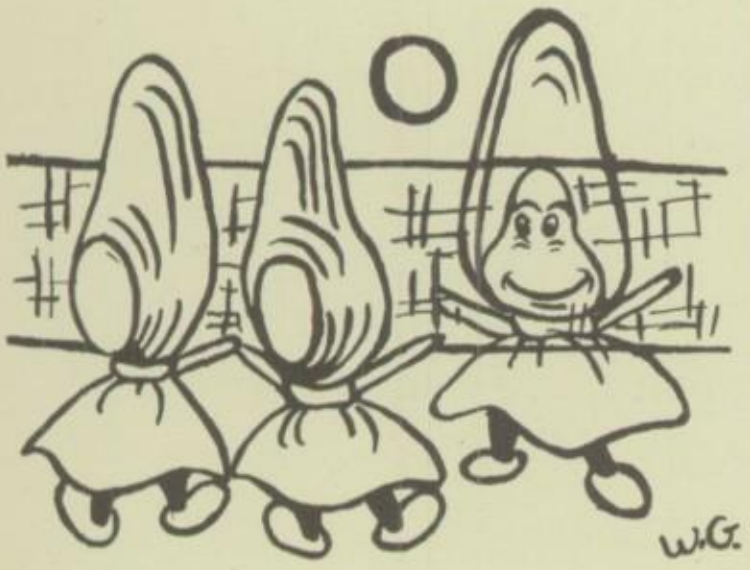
It has become practically a tradition at Olney to produce an outstanding girls' hockey team. This season's team has not broken the tradition. Under the excellent coaching of Mrs. Liese, the girls have reached great success. Team cooperation has helped to shape them into a well-organized, smoothly operating unit.

Volley Ball



Under the efficient coaching of Miss Eleanor Phillips, the volley-ball team has proved to be an outstanding feature in the girls' sports program. For nine years the girls have won the mythical city championship, and from recent results, this appears to be the tenth. The all-around team play of the girls has proved to be too fast for their opponents, resulting in victories for the Olney teams. Keep up the fine work!

SENIORS

Now Alice witnessed the gala event of our high school history—the entrance into the sacred precincts of the mighty senior. During her tour through Olney, Alice became very much attached to her class, and the realization that we would soon be parted came upon her with the suddenness of an explosion. She saw that we had passed through the best period of our lives and presently would be engaged in the task of making a place for ourselves in the world. Alice realized that in a few days we would part from our chums and classmates perhaps never to meet again.

But this is not the time for sorrow; it is a time for recollection. Let us all be happy and light of heart. And if, as the days and years glide by, the longing for old friends and Olney seizes you, do as Alice would prescribe, look into this volume and glance through its pages. Then the purpose of this Trojan will have been fulfilled.

Now, as we go forth into the outer world, to leave behind everything but the memories of our years at Olney High, we should resolve never to do anything but that which will bring honor and glory to our Alma Mater. Then Olney High School will raise her head with pride and cherish her memories of the January, 1952, Class.

"Thus grew the tale of Wonderland,
Thus slowly, one by one,
Its quaint events were hammered out—
and now the tale is done,
And home we steer, a merry crew,
Beneath the setting sun."

OUR

We counted the years, the months, the days, and finally the hours that remained until our long anticipated, wonderful senior prom. We spent the early part of that memorable June 1 in school, impatiently watching the clock tick slowly away. Each of those five school hours seemed an eternity. Then, finally, the dismissal bell rang. Each of us rushed to his all-important destination: the hair-dresser, the barber shop, the florist, and at last home to dress. Dinner, of course, was out of the question, for those butterflies in our stomachs prevented us from eating anything at all. One last look of approval in the mirror made us all glad that ours was a summer prom. The door-bell rang and the girls were soon opening those boxes of flowers presented to them by the young men who looked so handsome in their white dinner jackets.

Alice's Wonderland was no more appealing to her than the Cedarbrook Country Club was to us on that night. The ballroom was whirling with organdy and orchids. We thrilled at the sight of our schoolmates who had suddenly become so charming. We received our dance books and prom keys at the door and joined the joyous crowd. We danced the night away on the patio, the dew laden grass, and the crowded ballroom floor to the music of Marty Kramer and his orchestra.

Although the prom itself was wonderful, we soon found ourselves on our way to various night clubs. The night faded, but we were still wide-awake. We went from party to party, singing, dancing, and eating. The brightly shining sun took us all by surprise. We left the breakfast parties, after having bestowed many thanks on our wonderful hostesses. Then, on our doorsteps, in the midst of the morning sunshine, we sleepily, but reluctantly, bid our dates goodnight.

We had sung and laughed, had been quiet and noisy, but, all the while, we had been Olney students.

Grade Chairman

MISS PHILLIPS

There have been times during our years at Olney when we were so confused that we didn't know which way to turn. Our many problems about courses were heaped upon Miss Phillips – Our Grade Counselor. She always did her best to help us solve them. Not only is she a gym and hygiene teacher, and a grade counselor, but a leader of the first aiders during the retention drills. Even with these many duties, Miss Phillips is never too busy to give us a smile.

Thanks to her expert guidance, our stay at Olney has been made much happier.
